Charlotte Democrat, 18th instant. Another Tragedy in New York-Distressing Suicide

of an Author. Henry William Herbert, better known by his writings as "Frank Forestor," committed suicide on Monday morning at the Stevens House, in New York, by shooting himself through the left breast. He had, it appears, for some weeks been very depressed in spirits owing to his separation from his second wife, to whom he had but a short time been married. What caused the sepa-

from the deceased. On Sunday Mr. Herbert sent for his friend Mr. Anthon, and requested him to remain with him as long as possible, as he was lonely and depressed. He told Mr. Anthon that he intended to commit suicide on the same day of the month upon which he was married the second | time. This was on the 16th of February last. It did not occur to Mr. Anthon at the time that Sunday was the 16th of the month. He first thought of committing the act over the grave of his first wife, in the cemetary at Newark, but altered his intention in that respect .- | Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. Mr. Anthon remained with him, sitting up with him till 2 A. M., trying to prevail upon him not to commit the rash act, but he seemed determined. While they were in Mr. Herbert's parlor together, at the above mentioned hour, Mr. Herbert retired (apparently for a moment) to the bedroom adjoining, when Mr. Anthon heard the discharge of a pistol. a decided downward tendency. SPIRITS TURPENTINE-The advices received since our last

have been unfavorable for this article, and the market here has ruled unsettled, and by reference to our table of sales below it will be seen that prices are 2 cents lower. At the Corn—Finds ready sale. Peas—Plenty on hand, and detime of closing our report this morning, sales had been made at 42 cents per gallon, at which figure the market is rather dull. We quote sales for the week as follows:

Thursday. . . . 200 bbls. at 44 cents ₽ gallon Friday......250 " " 44 Saturday.....200 " " 43 66 66 66 11 11 42 Wednesday....300

Sugar is firm. Rice quiet. Linseed Oil 30sa30s 6d. with a good enquiry at former rates. The sales comprise some 7 a 800 bbls. at prices ranging from $5 50 to $7 50 % bbl., as in quality; and $3 25 a $3 50 for opaque. For the finer grades of old crop No. 1 there is also a moderate anquiry, and scarcely any on market; small sales at $2 50 a $4:—the lower grades are dull, and nominal at $1 50 to $2. ments. Consuls 97 a 97%. For No. 2 there is little or no demand, and we note a moderate stock on market; one or two small lots sold at $1 25 SOLD BY MR. I. ALEXANDER warranted pure and massive gold! Mr. Alexander never has kept, nor does a $1 40, as in quality. For Common the market has ruled quiet, and closes at a shade de cline on previous quotations. We note sales during the week of only 500 bbls. (on Tues-

ket closing at lowest price. BEEF CATTLE AND SHEEP-There is nothing new to report in the market for either. The arrivals of beeves have been quite small for some time past, and butchers have very few now on hand. We note a brisk demand, and quote at 6 a 61 cents for grass and 8 a 9 cents & B. for stall fatted .-YOUR FINE GOLD WATCHES REPAIRED, and not For SHEEP there is also a good demand for butchering purposes, and only a few small lots have been brought to market. One lot of 25 head sold a few days since at $2 50 each. We quote at $2 a $2 50, as in quality.

> rels have been quite small for some time past, and in consequence the supply on market has become very much reduced, and are mostly of ordinary and inferior quality. The demand is moderate, but we note only small sales for the week at prices ranging within quotations in table, COTTON-After closing our review on Thursday last, we Co., New York. notice sales of 139 bales at 12 cents for low to strict middling, and 124 cents for good middling. Since then the market has ruled inactive, the figures at which parcels have been held being above the views of huyers, and only one

BARRELS-The arrivals of empty Spirits Turpentine bar-

COFFEE-There is a moderate supply of most descriptions on market, and prices remain the same. We note merely a retail demand, and quote only small sales from store at prices ranging within quotations, as in quantity and quality.

CORN MEAL-Continues to be brought in sparingly from the country, and the market is poorly supplied. We quote from the granaries at 85 cents per bushel, in lots to suit. FLOUR .- As regards prices the market for State brands has ruled about the same as reported in our last review .-The demand has been confined almost exclusively to small parcels for retailers' use, and a lot of any moment could hardly find sale at quotations below. The !receipts for the week have been moderate, and the market is at present very well supplied, and rules dull. We quote only small transactions at $5 40 a $5 50 for superfine, and $5 50 $9 bbl. for GRAIN .- The market for Corn has ruled steady since our last, and with a moderate demand from dealers the price has advanced one cent. The receipts for the week comprise Savage ; with naval stores. only 5,000 bushels from Hyde county, of which 850 do. sold at 67½ cents, and 4,150 do. at 67 cents per bushel—at which H. VanBokkelen. figure the market closes.—OATS.—The market is very T. C. Worth; with mdze. well supplied, and rules quiet. None received for some time past, and we are unable to give a correct figure-nominal at 38 a 40 cents & bushel. PEAS-Of all kinds are in active request, and scarcely any on market. Only one or two small parcels of Cow received by dealers, which have with mdze. gone into store; sell quick at $1 15 a $1 20 ₽ bushel, according to quantity and quality .---- Rice .- In the rough article we have nothing in the way of sales to report; the Harriss & Howell; with mdze. supply in planters' hands is quite small, and generally held above last sales -871 cents # bushel. Clean remains without quotable change, and there is but a small supply at W. Davis; with mdze. present on market. We quote from store at 34 a 34 cents ₩ fb .----- Wheat .-- In this article we have no sales to report, and market dull. We quote nominally at 90 cents for C. & B. G. Worth. red, and $1 05 a $1 10 for white.

HAY- The market continues well supplied, and rules about the same. Receipts for the week comprise 433 bales, and sales as follows: 100 bales Northern at 50 cents, cash; and 175 do. do. at 60 cents, 90 days; and 158 do. Eastern at 70 cents # 100 lbs., 90 days.

LIME—Is in good stock, and with merely a retail demand the market rules decidedly dull. Selling from store at $1 # ask, in quantities to suit. Molasses .- No change to make on former prices. The stock of Cuba in first hands has become somewhat reduced in the absence of receipts, though it is fully equal to the demand. We quote small sales from wharf at 24 a 26 cents a gallon, as in quantity. PEA NUTS-Very few if any coming in, and quotations in table are merely nominal. PROVISIONS-For N. C. cured Bacon the market rules about the same as reported in our last. The quantity received for some weeks has been unusually small, and we note only a few small lots at present in first hands; dealers, however, seem but little disposed to operate. We quote at 14 cents for hog round, and 15 cents ₩ fb. for hams. Wes. & Co.; with mdze. tern cured continues to arrive quite freely, and the market Rary & Co.; with mdze. is well stocked. There is but little demand existing, and we hear of only small sales at former rates—91 cents for VanBokkelen. shoulders, and 11 a 111 cents & th. for sides. LARD-During the past week the market has ruled quiet for all descriptions, and we have nothing to report except sales in Worth; with naval stores, &c. the retail way. Little or no N. C. make received, and we can hardly give a correct quotation. We quote at 13 cents for N. C., and 121 cents for Western. Pork The market is fairly supplied with Northern, and with a moderate enquiry rules steady at quotations. See table. SALT .- The market for both Liverpool ground and Alum

Our quotations in table must be lookwhen brought & Railroad, about the same expenses are incurred. *For virgin or mixed Turpentine a deduction ed upon as merely nominal, as no sales have been made that we are aware of.

FREIGHTS .- Country produce has been brought in slowly for some time past, and the large number of vessels that have arrived here within the past three weeks has caused the market for coastwise rates to rule decidedly dull. Rates to New York are 25 cents on Rosin, (under deck.) and 40 a 45 cents on Spirits Turpentine, and but a small quantity offering shipment. See table.

MOBILE, May 18 .- Cotton is firm, and 600 bales were sold to-day at 114c. per lb. for Middling. The sales of three days comprise 2000, and the receipts 2600 bales. NEW ORLEANS, May 18 .- The sales of Cotton to day omprise 500 bales, at unchanged prices. The increase of receipts for the season, at this port, is 73,000, and at all the orts 36,000 bales. The stock on hand comprises 288,000
